

United States Army Infantry School

Rifle Marksmanship Qualification Strategy for Advanced Individual Training (AIT) and

Interservice Training Review Organization (ITRO)

Mr. Fred Roberts
Systems Division G3

25 January 2005

Background

- HQ TRADOC tasked the Infantry School to develop a Rifle Marksmanship (RM) Qualification strategy for all Advanced Individual Training (AIT) and Interservice Training Review Organization (ITRO) courses which are six weeks or longer in length.
- Guidance for the strategy included:
 - As a minimum, zero and qualification
 - Use M16/M4 with iron sights.
 - Include COE Lessons Learned.

Infantry School Approach

- As a minimum, zero and qualification. Recommend addition of Grouping and concurrent PMI, as required.
- Use M16/M4 with iron sights. Recommend M16A2/M4; alternative is M16A1.
- Include COE Lessons learned. Recommend addition of Reflexive Fire.
- Recommend implementation of strategy using any one of these two options with a preference to option 2:

Option 1 All Live Fire (26 Hours).

Option 2 Combination of EST 2000 and Live Fire (40 Hours).

- 25 meter Alternate Course is alternative to full-up Practice Record Fire and Record Fire Ranges.

All Live Fire Strategy--26 Hours

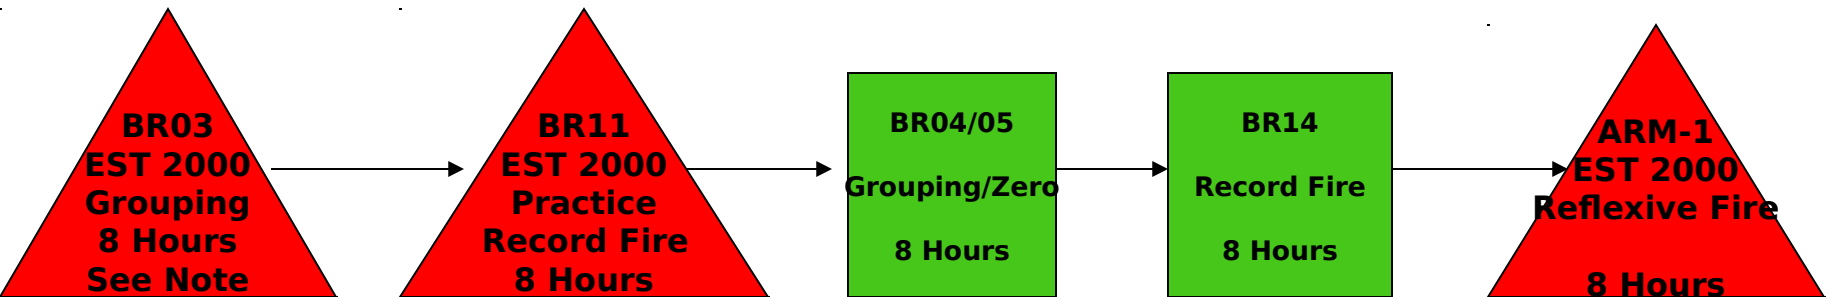

Option 1

	BR04/05	BR12	BR13/Reflexive Fire	Required per
		Soldier
Ammunition :	18	40	60	118

NOTE: PMI will be concurrently conducted here. Recommend dime washer, target box, immediate action, and assembly/disassembly

Combination of EST 2000 and Live Fire--40 Hours Option 2

per Soldier	BR03	BR11	BR04/05	BR13	Reflexive Fire	Required
Ammunition :	0	0	18	40	0
58

NOTE: PMI will be concurrently conducted here. Recommend dime washer, target box, immediate action, and assembly/disassembly

 Live Fire

 EST 2000